Officers passing toll-gates on duty otherwise than in uniform will enter in a book kept by the toll-gate keeper for the purpose, their rank, name, and the nature of duty on which they are travelling. The contractor should keep such books in each of the toll-gates and have them presented on demand by the Military Officers passing the gate on duty.

15. Any breach of the above conditions or rules on the part of the contractor or his servants will entail the forfeiture of the deposit or the levy of a fine not exceeding Rs. 50 per each infringement. If the fine be not paid or in the event of instalments or other sums due are not paid within the prescribed date, it shall be competent to the President to suspend further collection of toll by the contractor and dispose of the right to collect the toll during the remaining period by a resale or otherwise. The resale will be held at the risk of the defaulting contractor who shall be liable to make good all losses accruing but shall not be entitiled to any profits arising from the resale.

16. The imposition of fine or resale of the contract shall be no bar to the prosecution of the contractor or his employees for any offence or to the institution of other legal steps against them under any law in force for the time being.
